

Wipro Global Celonis Center

One-stop shop for process discovery and transformation leveraging the power of Celonis process mining

In an incessant journey of digitization, business processes create a wealth of enormous data around the actual state of process. Wipro Global Celonis Center (GCC) helps generate value out of this available data to create a Digital Twin and a 360-view of process health. It also unlocks every transformation opportunity that results in process efficiency, transparency and enhanced employee experience.

Unleash the power of Celonis, which highlights a transparent blueprint of your process and makes the business evolve continuously to deliver business insights and shift towards fact-based decision-making rather than perception-based decisions.

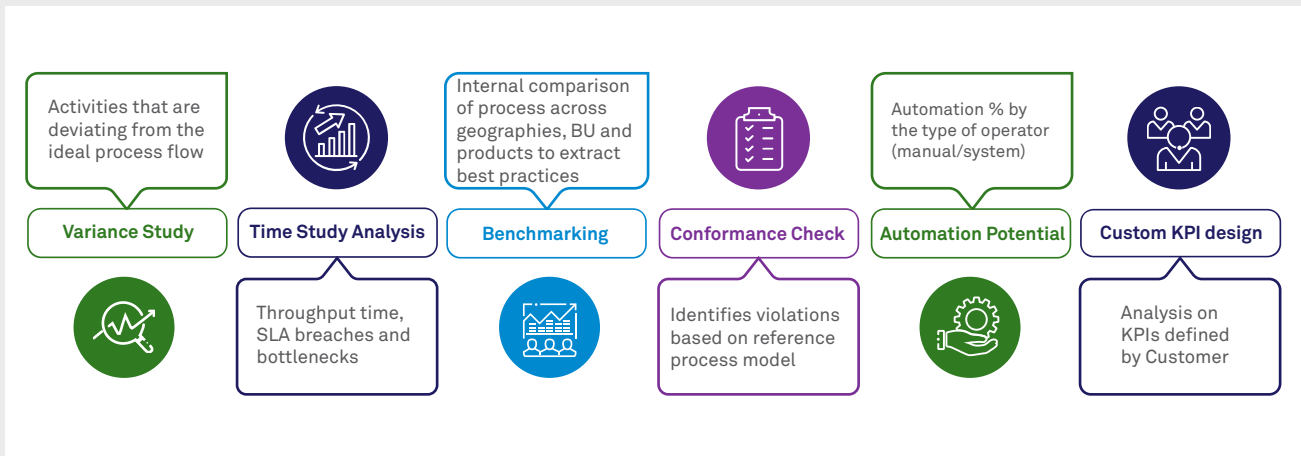

GCC delivers value

-  Automate process-discovery entirely based on data
-  AI-powered action engine for smart decision making
-  Faster implementation through built-in connectors and apps
-  Continuous monitoring of metrics and impact assessment over a period of time
-  Accurate ROI calculation and quantified business outcomes
-  Library of process knowledge, systems and KPIs, and an advanced learning portal
-  Process-improvement recommendations from industry experts
